Notables to Sail on Six Steamships for Foreign Ports

American Ministers to Hungary, Portugal and Poland Leave To-day for Posts.

Six liners carrying more than 2,400 Mr. Bronson M. Cutting has gone to Sante Fe. N. M.

The two largest vessels of the five.

The two largest vessels of the White her country house in Amsterdam, N. Y. Star Line, are booked with 1,300 pasbourg are Fred Morris Dearing, U. S. Minister to Portugal, who is accompanied by Mrs. Dearing and their son, Donn Dearing; Prof. Harry Fielding Reid of Johns Hopkins University, Samuel Vauclain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Company; Lleut.-Col. Sir Maurice Alexander, C. M. G., barrister, of Montreal; Sir Charles Ross, Prince Miguel de Braganza, Edward Rascovar, president of the New York News Bureau and Central News of London; W. H. Hurst, president of the Stock Quotation and Telegraph Company; former Police Commissioner Thomas F. McAvoy and Mark C. Cohn, consultant on housing and building regulations of San mousing and building regulation of San Francisco.

Among the socially prominent persons on the Homeric's list are Mr. J. W. Ellsworth, Mrs. James B. Haggin, who is joining her mother and father-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters, formerly Mrs. Pembroke Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. John Russell Pope, Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, ir, and Mrs. Charles Scribner and Missuila Berwind of New York, Mr. R. S. radley, Miss Rosamond Bradley and iss Lavinia Newell of Boston, Gen. and S. George Hewett Myers of Baltimore, Alva Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Scribner and Mrs. Charles Scribner and Mrs. Charles Scribner and Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, is, Ind. of April 20, which will be given at the Ambassador. She will go with her sister, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson.

WASHINGTON:

Miss Eunice James, daughter of Dr. according to Charles Millang, a lead, wholesale florist.

"The Bermuda Easter lily no lone visits our shores at this season." A Millang said. 'Instead the way bits some is grown right this neighborhoo There are cleaty of Easter lilles Lone Island, in New lersey and the soid an pots on also cut and will average about 25 dozen wholesale or from for y to fifteents a flower. Bads on a ported diagrate counted as a flower, Bads on a ported diagrate counted as a flower, Bads on a ported diagrate counted as a flower, Bads on a ported diagrate counted as a flower, Bads on a ported diagrate wholesale or from for y to fifteents a flower. Bads on a ported diagrate wholesale or from for y to fifteents and Mrs. Walter Hayes of rolt.

WASHINGTON:

WASHINGTON:

On the White Star liner Baitic, Schedled to sail for Queenstown and Liverool, are Prof. James Moffat, D. D.; ewis N. Lukens, Jr., of Philadelphia; I. A. Holland, London representative of the Keystone Watch Case Company, G. Murray of the Radio Corporation of America, the Rev. Charles Mees of an Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Alexanderiallie of Seattle, Mrs. W. E. Sanford Hamilton, Ontarior; Mrs. R. Ian Macherson and family and Mrs. A. H. now of Washington.

On Board the America.

On board the America of the United ates Line, which is carrying 400 pasners, are a number of Governmental presentatives. Prominent among them Judge Theodore Brentano of Chicago... recently appointed Minister to Hunry. Judge Brentano enjoys the discetton of being the first American plomat apopinted to the Hungarian overnment. Judge Brentano and Mrs. centano will have their headquarters Budapest.

Brentano will have their headquarters in Budapest.

Also sailing on the America is Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gibson. Mr. Gibson is the American Minister to Poland. Mrs. Joseph Kornfeld. accompanied by her daughter, Rosa, and her son. J. S. Kornfeld. are en route to Tcheran. Persia, to Join Mr. Kornfeld. American Minister, who sailed about a month ago.

Other Governmental representatives include Ferdinand Mayer, secretary of the American Legation at Tangler, Morocco, and Earl L. Packer. American Vice-Consul at Riga.

Other passengers of prominence include Congressman Fred A. Britton and Mrs. Hugh Mrs. Britton, Joseph D. Sheedy. European representative of the United States Shipping Board; Mme. Elly Ney, world famous planist; William Von Hoogstraten, musical conductor; Berger Kilbansky, vocal instructor; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Ross D. Whytock.

To Sail on French Line.

To Sail on French Line.

Hourdonnals of the French Line.

Hourdonnals of the French Line.

Fr. and Mrs. R. Garcia, Mr. and S. Gomez and their two children Mariana Lorenzo, Mr. and Martin, Mrs. Thomas Wild, Mrs. Albert Brunell, Mr. Bap' ie, Mr. and Stage of the Brownell Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Will have as the Eugene Will oren, Mrs. Mariana Lorenzo, Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. Thomas Wild. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brunell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Pomeroy will have as their guest through the Easter season the latter's mother, Mrs. L. Bor Je, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Blain, Mrs. J. dise Duryea, Mr. and Mrs. L. Eagan, who has a rrived in Washington from Flerida. Mr. and Mrs. Lescot, Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy will give up their house inc. Miss Suzanne Madeleine, Miss Rena Madeleine and Master Raymond adeleine: Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Olivero.

Mrs. A. M. Penhalvand of Holland-America Line are Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. James, expected to Dog Mrs. Washington Hotels.

At Washington Hotels.

Mrs. H. E. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lawson-Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lubbers, Mr. and Mrs. E. Muller, Mr. and Mrs. B. von Herff, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. B. Braakman, Mr. Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. B. Braakman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bulwinkel, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Court, Mr. and Mrs. R. Harz, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hub, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hundt, Mr. and Mrs. F. Leyer. Mr. and Mrs. C. Weldner. With 450 passengers the Orduna of the Royal Mail Line sails to-day for Cherbourg. Southampton and Hamburg. On board is Max Gorke, 23 years old, who was found in a hold on the Orbita when she arrived on March 24. Included among the passengers on the

when she arrived on March 24. Included among the passengers on the Orduna are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brady, Mrs. James G. Biddle and Miss Biddle, Philadelphia; Miss Alice Trimble, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Zuiggeler, Miss Anna Chapin, Charles Whitehead, Mrs. John Delano, Alvin J. Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Goodwin.

VOYAGERS ON THE CEDRIC.

ger on the White Star liner Cedric, due at New York to-day from Liverpool. She will attend the national Y. M. C. A. econvention at Hot Springs, Ark.

Other first cabin passengers on the Cedric are Arthur Coles and James Hynes, publishers, representing Sir Isaac Pitman's, Ltd.; Irving Van Wart, New York lawyer; Henry Joseph Mondorf, theatrical manager; Robert Torrance, banker, of Guelph; Ivor G. Reece, Ottawa agent for the Canadian National Railways; Fred Williams, British musical director, and Joachim Ginsberg, Russian merchant.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mrs. George Cabot Ward has returned

Mr. and Mrs. J. Insley Blair have gone to Tuxedo Park for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Egerton Webb gave a luncheon yesterday at Sherr,'s for Mr. and Mrs. Horatio S. Shonnerd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goadby Loew will go to Roslyn, L. I., early in May, and in July will go to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer, Jr., have returned to Washington from a trip through the South and West.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Moore will sail for Japan on May II, Mr. Moore having been appointed counsellor of the Japanese Embassy.

sence of several weeks. She is now in

The President and Mrs. Harding are expected to attend the opening game of the polo season in Potomac Park this afternoon, which is an event of importance in society as well as in the world of sport.

Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth. Jr., and Miss Evelve Wadsworth returned to Washington yesterday. The Senator was in New York to meet his wife and daughter on their return from Europe.

"It is not necessary to go to Fifth avenue to find good flowers," said Mr. Henshaw. "You will find them in Broadway and the side streets. Such a great number of Greeks have gone into the business that they have opened stores in almost every part of the city."

Mr. Henshaw predicted a trice of fifth avenue to find good flowers, said Mr. Henshaw are to find good flowers, and Mr. Henshaw predicted a trice of fifth avenue to find good flowers, and Mr. Henshaw are to find good flowers, and Mr. Henshaw. "You will find them in Broadway and the side streets. Such a great number of Greeks have gone into the business that they have opened stores in almost every part of the city."

The Shorenam—John M. Thompson, H. E. Breed, J. F. Laughthorne and Belgium. In 1917, the Government established the quarantine to keep out all plants from abroad, and since then the Wadman Park—A. M. Henry, J. V. Green Stanley R. Jones, Frederick W. Naumberg, Aurther Ziglheimer, Mrs. Hilda J. Eaggs, Miss Bagga and Mrs. Barney Rigs.

MRS. GROSVENOR'S CONDITION SERIOUS

MISS TRAFFORD ENGAGED.

Will Become Bride of Mr. Arthur Terry, Jr.

Mr. 1nd Mrs. Perry D. Trafford of Short Hills, N. J., announced yesterday the engagement of their daughter, Miss Melinds Trafford, to Mr. Arthur Terry, Jr., abo of Short Hills. Miss Trafford was graduated from Miss Chapin's School, and now is a member of the junior class at Smith College. She is a member of the Junior League, and last winter she was included in many of the parties in this city given for debutantes.

Mr. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Terry, and is related to many distinguished families. His father is a half brother of the famous author, the late Marion Crawford, and he was identified with Hfe in Rome for years. He also was related to the late Samuel Ward and the late Mrs. Julia Ward Howe.

Mr. Terry was graduated from St. Faul's School and from Princeton with the class of 1919. He served two years he has almost recovered.

Princess Elizabeth, wife of Crown Prince George, who is suffering from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting from typhoid fever, was reported as resting tropped and resting tropped and Howe.

Mr. Terry was graduated from St. Faul's School and from Princeton with the class of 1919. He served two years in France, first with the American field service and later as a Lieutenant in the army. No date has been set for the

City Is Gay in Easter Blooms as Prices Fall

Carnations and Roses as Rivals Vie With Waxen Lilies for Public Favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles X. Cordier went yesterday to the Ambassador, Atlantic that accounts for the tremendors supply of cut flowers and plants that will be offered for sale in shops and in City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goadby Loew will go to Roslyn, L. L. early in May, and in July will go to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Petit of Three Gars, Hempstead, L. I., are at the Arnbassador.

Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell Hillen and her niece, Miss Mary Reed of Baltimore, are at the Ritz-Carlion.

Miss Funics I was daughter of Dr.

Supply of cut flowers and plants the will be offered for sale in shops and in special Easter markets to-day and to-more. The supply consequently reaction on the market value and purchasers may be expect to find their foral offering cheaper than in the last five years.

Literally millions of blooms will fine way into Fifth avenue, Broody and the side street shops. Never before has such a wide variety been gyallable, wholesale florist.

"The Bermuda Easter illy no longer with the season." Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell Hillen and her niece, Miss Mary Reed of Baltimore, are at the Ritz-Carlion.

Miss Funics Lawrence of Dr.

William Goadby Loew will be offered for sale in shops and in special Easter markets to-day and to-more. The supply consequently reaction on the market value and purchasers may be cheaper than in the last five years.

Literally millions of blooms will fine way into Fifth a wear of the world was a such a wide variety been gyalloned the will be offered for sale in shops and to will be offered for sale in shops and to will be offered for sale in shops and to will be offered for sale in shops and to special Easter markets to-day and to will be offered for sale in shops and to will be offered for sale in shops and to special Easter markets to-day and to supply the special Easter markets to-day and to special Easter markets to-day and to supply of cut flowers and in shops and to special Easter market value and purchasers may be special Easter market value and purchase

Roses are plentiful and will release all the way from $1.30 to $9 a doze for the very long stemmed varieties. There will be quantities of Columbia Premiers, Ophelias, Butterfly and of the other well known varieties. Carnations will rival roses, for there is alway a great demand for these fragrant pink and white hardy flowers.

"Spring flowers, such as hyacinths, daffedits, sweet pass, snan dragen and daffedits sweet pass, snan dragen and

"Spring flowers, such as hyacinths, daffodis, sweet peas, snap dragon and illy of the valley will be plentiful and offered at reasonable prices. In fact, all flowers are going to be so cheap that it will be a poor season for the florist, but a fine one for the public. The loss to the florist is going to prevent him from making anything worth while out of the reduced prices.

"Hyacinths will bring about 35 to 56 cents a pot and other potted bulbs and "Hyacinths will bring about 35 to 56 cents a pot and other potted bulbs and plants will be correspondingly low in price. Lilies of the valley, which are put up in bunches of twenty-five stalks, will cost about $3 retail.

"Violets will be neither plentiful nor of fine grade because of the lateness of the season and the weather. Most of the violets come from Red Hook and Rhinebeck on the Hudson.

"The best time to give your order to the florist if you want to have your gift arrive Easter morning, is Saturday afternoon," advised Mr. Millang.

Flowers a-plenty at reasonable prices

Flowers a-plenty at reasonable prices were also predicted by A. M. Henshaw, head of one of the large wholesale florists shops. Not since 1916 has the public had such an opportunity to buy at

Injured Back Is Placed in Special Dispatch to THE New York Heraun. Newbort, R. I., April 14.—Mrs. Robert. Groavenor, who was seriously burt when thrown from her horse vesterday, is still in a serious condition at the New-port Hospital. "To-day her back was placed in a plas-ter cast.

NEWPORT NOTES.

GIRLS TO SELL FLOWERS FROM WAGONS TO AID WOME! VOTERS Noted as Municipal

Selling Easter Flowers in Fifth Avenue. Miss Margaret McNulty of the Colonial Wars, and the Society (driving), Miss Antoinette McNulty (beside her) and Miss Jessie Horsfall (standing).

Prize Winning Blossoms Among Those to Be Offered for Benefit of State League.

HOT SPRINGS TO WELCOME EASTER WITH CONCERT-DANCE

Princeton University Musical Club to Give Its Annual Entertainment To-night-Mr. and Mrs. Breese Give Luncheon.

fifty cents a flower for Leater Bles, including large buds. The Easter illy, he said, would have its buvers, but he said, would have its buvers, but he said, would have its buvers, but he said would have its buvers, but he purchasers for the other varieties.

"It may be surprising to the public to learn that we now get our Easter lily bulbs from Japan," he said. "Until ten years ago Bermuda supplied us with the bulbs, but Bermuda lost her grip on the bronch the linstrumental section of the organization will be trade through overpreduction, and the trade through overpreduction, and then Japan stepped in.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald.

Hot Springs, brought her guests over for the glee club concert and dance. The party, which was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterry, occupied the Colonade Cottage, and was made up of the Misses Mary Osgood Field, Charling the Misses Mary Osgood Field, Charling the Jersey. I ling of the Misses Mary Osgood Field, Charling the Jersey. I ling of the William Willoughby Sharp, Jr., of New York was among the arrivals this to learn that we now get our Easter lily bulbs from Japan," he said. "Until ten years ago Bermuda supplied us with the bulbs, but Bermuda lost her grip on the trade through overpreduction, and then Japan stepped in.

"Florists have been nolding their violets back, keeping them in the shade and giving them cold water, but the

"Florists have been nolding their violets back, keeping them in the shade and giving them cold water, but the violet will disappear from the shops right after Easter. Lily of the valley pips come from Germany. Darwin tulips with long stems have become popular.

"In prewar days 75 per cent of our flowering plants were brought to a two or three year growth in Europe, parficularly in England, France, Holland and Belgium. In 1917 the Government Angier E. Duke, Mr. Edward Nicoll Dickersor, of New York had small function parties at the Homestead to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Gale, who came in to-day from Boston, entertained there to-day at luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noel Rawlings arrived to-day from New York for a visit of three weeks. Other arrivals were flowering plants were brought to a two or three year growth in Europe, parity of the weeks. Other arrivals were flowering plants were brought to a two or three year growth in Europe, parity of the weeks. Other arrivals were flowering plants were brought to a two or three years growth in Europe, parity of the years of the years of the particularly in England, France, Holland and Belgium. In 1917 the Government banied by Mr. W. Butler Duncan; Mr. Angler B. Duke, Mr. Edward M. Mell-shed the quarantine to keep out into from abroad, and since then we been growing our own. That we have no azaleas."

GROSVENOR'S

CONDITION SERIOUS

The Back Is Placed in Plaster Cast.

Dispatch to The New York Heralds of the Messer, Edward W. Sheldon, and her songer, who was seriously burt when from her horse yesterday, is a serious condition at the New-tospital.

The Banied by Mr. W. Butler Duncan; Mr. Angler Duncan; Mr. Angler B. Duke, Mr. Edward M. Mell-shed Mrs. William Henry barnum, Miss Harriet Barnum and Miss M. K. Forman.

Mr. John McCoy arrived to join Mrs. Mittle, and Senora Lebreton and Senora Lebreton and Senora Lebreton and Senora Mathieu. Others in the with Mrs. Williams to be with Mrs. Williams.

Mr. Percy Hamilton Kittle came in from Bayshore, L. L., to join Mrs. Kittle, of the Argentine Ambassador, Dr. Tomas A Lebreton and Senora Lebreton and Senora Mathieu. Others in the with Mrs. Williams to be with Mrs. William Kittle came in Senora Lebreton and Senora Lebreton and Senora Lebreton and Seno banker, of Guelhi, ive of, Reco. Otherway agent for the Canadian National Control of the Control

New York, was among the arrivals this

Engineer, Is Dead

Once in Charge of Croton

Duce in Charge of Croton
Aqueduct and Was Builder of Nagle Avenue.

Alexander Crawford Chenoweth, a widely known consulting engineer, and no one time the resident engineer in charge of the Croton Aqueduct, died of least disease yesterday in his aparticular to the Engrish Avenue Hotel, 429

Frank Herriman Rossiter, aged 44, a son of the late E. V. W. Rossiter, who was a vice-president of the New York Central, and of the New York Central, died yesterday in St. Luke's Hospital. He had been ill for about four years, suffering from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Rossiter was born in Flushing and had lived there all his life, occupying the old Rossiter homestead in San ford avenue, with his mother. He formerly was connected with the auditing department of the New York Central. Soon after the United States entered the war he enlisted in the army was as-Fourth avenue. He was 73 years old, and leaves his wife, who was Miss Catherine Richardson Wood, daughter of former Mayor Fernando Wood of New York, and one son, Alexander, Jr. Mr. Chenoweth was born at Baltimore on June 5, 1849, and was educated at Dickinson College and Rensselar Polytechnic Institute. He married in 1876. Mr. Chenoweth began his career as an engineer with a post on the engineering force of Proxpect Park, and lurial will be in Flushing Cemetery. as an engineer with a post on the en-gineering force of Prospect Park, and after became assistant engineer of the Middletown-New Haven Railroad. He afterward was consulting engineer for Island, and in 1885 became an assistant engineer for the Croton Aqueduct Commission. He was resident engineer of the aqueduct from 1889 to 1885, when he resigned to enter into construction work for the Government at Sandy Hook. He built Nagle avenue in Manhattan and received many prizes from municipal governments for various plans and improvements in city engineering methods.

Several years ago Mr. Chenoweth discovered at Inwood an Indian village from which many antiques were taken for the American Museum of Sandy Hook.

JOHN CARSTENSEN DEAD.

At the home of Mr. Chamberlain Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss and of prize winning bloss coming from one of the largest private greenhouses near New York and Easter baskets and fresh eggs from the farms of Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip will be served by the deep the will be served by the Misses Marja and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss and the farms of Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip will give a party in the Misses Margaret Menusy and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss to private greenhouses near New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss to private greenhouses near New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss to private greenhouses near New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning the patronessa and private greenhouses near New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning the patronessa Vanderlip, and a number of private greenhouses near New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning bloss of prize winning the patronessa Vanderlip, and a number of the New York and Dodds, 28 East Fifty-second street, today thousands of prize winning the patronessa Vanderlip, and a number of the New York and Dodds, 18 East Fifty-second of the Among the patronessa Vanderlip, and a number of the New York and Provent Mrs. Chalter he Becker, the child of Santa Cruz, then one of the Island of Santa Cruz, then one of the Isl Club, and was a member of the Union League, American Yacht and Sleepy Hollow Country clubs. He leaves a wife, who was Adele Thatcher Robin, and a daughter, Mrs. J. Nelson Shreve.

Robert Brisbane, senior construction superintendent of the J. G. White Ensuperintendent of the J. G. White Engineering Corporation, 43 Exchange place, died in St. Luke's Hospital on Thursday after an operation. He was born in Scotland in 1885 and came to this country when 21. He had acquired a knowledge of engineering in Scotland. He had worked on public works in all parts of the camptry. He was in charge of construction work on the Croton aqueduct, the New York State Besge Canal and many private works, including the Edison cement plant in New Jersey. He had completed the rebuilding of the Bolenas, Cal., station of the ing the Edison cement plant in New Jersey. He had completed the rebuilding of the Bolenas, Cal., station of the Radio Corporation of America, and was to leave to take charge of an undertaking in West Virginia when he became seriously ill. He leaves his wife and a granddaughter.

HANK, Broadway and 165th st. LOST—Two packages in yellow taxl. April 11, at 7 o'clock, between 14, and 180th av. 30th av. 180th av. 30th av. 180th av. 180th

George W. Snedeker of 357 Sterling place, Brooklyn, a grandson of John W. Snedeker, who founded the Midwood section of Flatbush, died of pneumonia Thursday in Atlantic City. He was about 70 years old. Funeral services will be held at the Lefferts Place Chapel, Brooklyn, this afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Mr. Snedeker, who was born in the Hill section of Brooklyn, had large real estate holdings in that borough and was one of the builders of the Wallabout market. He formerly was engaged in the stock brokerage business. His wife, Mrs. Aretta Kenyon Fairchild Snedeker, and two stepsons, Frank K. and Marcus D. Fairchild, of Brooklyn survive him. Brooklyn, a grandson of John W. ker, who founded the Midwood

MRS. JOSEPHINE COREY.

Services for Mrs. Josephine Corey, aged 50, who died of diabetes Thursday in her home, 788 Riverside Drive, will he held at noon to-day and the body will be taken to Tarrytown for burial.

LOST.—Dark brown for neckpiece, Thurs-Seebings and Corby Gibbons,
Mr. Benjamin P. Bakewell, arrived from Pittaburgh to Join Mrs. Bakewell, who is here with her mother, Mrs. Harry
T. Dunn of New York,
Mrs. William H. Tevis Huhn came in to-day from Phitadelphia.

Miss Mathilde McCormick and her brother, Mr. Fowler McCormick, arrived last night by automobile from the McCormick, arrived last night by automobile from the McCormick, and Mrs. Edgar F. Luckenbach left to-day for Elin Court, Sands Point, L. L., where they will be until at in May, when they sail for Eutope.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Special Dispatch to The New York Brazic, Writer Sulphur Springs, W. V. A. Arril 14.—The songs of old Nassau echoed to the roof of the Greenbrier to-night when the Princeton Gibe Clubs and Miss Frances A. Holt of New York willows.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Special Dispatch to The New York Brazic, Writer Sulphur Springs, W. V. A. Arril 14.—The songs of old Nassau echoed to the roof of the Greenbrier to-night when the Princeton Gibe Clubs and the Sulphur Springs of the American Revolution, Thea Laurel House work life and Mrs. J. H. Belson, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Reed Barger of the American Revolution, Thea Laurel House in May, when they sail for Eutope.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Special Dispatch to The New York Brazic, Writer Sulphur Revolution and Mrs. J. Reed Barger of the American Revolution, Thea Laurel In the Pines is entertaining and the body will be taken to Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Corny was a native of Tarrytown and the Mrs. Cornw the Mrs. Cornick the Mrs. Cornw the Mrs. Cornw the Mrs. Cornw the Mrs. Cornw

HAROLD W. COLE.

Harold Wyatt Cole, son of the late Dr. Galay, John C. Horles W. Cole of Albany and grandson of the late Judge John Orton Cole of that city, died Wednesday in this city after a long illness. Mr. Cole was born in Albany October 14, 1878, He was educated at the Albany Like. or that city, died wednesday in this city after a long illness. Mr. Cole was Livermore. A. K. born in Albany October 14, 1873. He was educated at the Albany High School and Hamilton College. He was identified with the refrigeration indus-identified with the refrigeration industry, being secretary of the Ice Publicity Association and of the Ice Dealers Mutual Casualty Company.

TYLER NORDLINGER.

Tyler Nordlinger, unmarried, an agent of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, died suddenly after a heart attack on Thursday in his apartment, 21 East Forty-ninth street. His body was found yesterday afternoon by a maid. His stater, Mrs. I, Rice, who lives at the Alexandria Hotel. 220 West 103d street, will remove the body to Wash ington, where the funeral will be hed great preferenced.

A.C. Chenoweth, 73, FRANK H. ROSSITER, ILL FOUR YEARS, DIES

Was Invalid Since His Return From Army Camp.

MRS. ALICE L. MORGAN POST.

423 REWARD-Lost, small erown suede leather vest pocketbook containing papers, initials I. D. A. W. Return to Miss MUL-LER, 25 Broadway, room 1860. Telephone Bowling Green 7852.

LOST.—Dark brown fox neckpiece, Thursday, April 13 at 6:30 P. M., on Broadway car, between 77th and 89th sts. Phone Circle 4583.

BUTTERWORTH April 15, at his real Butters orth. Fundral section 11 Washington Predigterian Course, 17 at and Washworth av., Saturday, 3 P. Interment private.

DIED.

CHENOWETH.—Suddenly, on April 13, 1922.
Alexander Crawford Chenoweth, LL. D., in the 73d year of his age. Funeral private. Paris Herald please copy.

Madet Post.

She was the daughter of the late Henry Morgan and his wife Cornelia Pell, and was related to many families prominent for generations in the social life of New York. She was a woman of great beauty and distinguished bearing. Surviving Mrs. Post, in addition to Mrs. Beadleston, with whom her mother lived at 166 East Sixty-first street, and Mrs. McMurtry, are her son, Mr. Alfred Seton Post, vice president of the Equitable Trust Company, and Mrs. Charles S. Farnum, formerly Miss Ethel Post, now of Philadelphia. Miss Alice Lee

LOST AND FOUND.

Sunday at 2:30 F. M.
SCHIEF -On April 12, 1922, James Montfor
Schley, Jr., late Lieutenant Sixteenth Infantry, First Division, U. S. A. bejovehusband of Edith Tuttle Schley of Lyme Conn., at Columbia. S. C., in his 42d yearParis papers picase copy. Funeral notice keepsake: $100 reward. Melrose 16R3.

$400 REWARD for return of brooch containing 2 large and numerous small diamonds, with 3 pearls in center; lout between April 5 and April 8.
BLACK, STARR 4 FROST, 5th av. ard 48th.

stater.

SHRADV.—Henry Merwin, at St. Luke's Hospital. April 12. Funeral services at Church of the Holy Communion, 6th av. and 20th st., Saturday, April 15, at 11 o'clock.

Cemetery.
TIBEBTTS.-Willard M., in his 79th year, at St. Vincent's Hospital Wednesday Funeral Saturday 2:39 P. M., The Funeral Church, Broadway at 66th st.

neral Saturday 2:30 P. M., The Funeral Church, Broadway at 66th at.

TRACY.—At Elizabeth, N. J., April 14, 1922.
Antoinette Curtenius Tracy. Funeral pervices at the residence of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Stillman, 551 North Broad at. Elizabeth, N. J., on Monday, April 17, at 11 A. M.

WHITESIDE.—Newton E., suddenly, April 13, husband of the late Elizabeth Hankins Whiteside and father of Norman N. and Arthur D. Whiteside. Funeral services will be held at the home of his son. 11 East 68th st., New York city, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 16. Interment 11 o'clock Monday morning at the Monment Cemetery, Philadelphia. Philadelphia and Oxford (Pa.) papers please copy. WRIGHT.—Charles, beloved brother of George Wright. Funeral from E. F. Donovan's funeral pariors, 525 Hudson st., on Saurday April 15, at 2 P. M. Interment Woodlawn Cemetery.

WRIGHT.—Veterana of the Soventh Bed.

UNDERTAKERS.

CEMETERIES, &C.

McNAIFR.—Entered into rest on Friday, April 14, Ella Coddington, eldest daughter of the late Walter J. and Emille Coddington McNaier. Funeral services Chapel of the Interceasion, 155th st. and Broadway, Monday, at 3:45 P. M. promptly.

NORDLINGER.—Tyler. Campbell Funeral Church. Notice later.

neral services at Northminster Presby-terian Church, 141 West 115th at., on Sunday at 2:30 P. M.

o'clock.

THOMAS.—Helen May (nee Tlemeyer), beloved wife of Elmer Thomas, on April 13 after a short Illness. Funeral service will be held at her late home, 291 Grant av., Cypress Hill, Brooklyn, on Saturday, April 15, at 1 F. M. Interment at Luther

IN MEMORIAM.

ROTHSCHILD.-In loving memory of Martis Rothschild, passed away April 15, 1912.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY